Bank of Maldives today announced that with its Male'-based Self-Service Banking units and Cash Agents throughout the atolls, the Bank will be able to provide better support than ever to its customers during the holy month of Ramazan.

All branches will open from 10.30am to 1.00pm Sunday to Thursday offering normal services. In addition, the Bank's seven Self-Service Banking units will offer customers the opportunity to deposit and withdraw cash 24 hours a day during Ramazan. This is the first Ramazan with these units in place and they will be manned at selected times to help customers who are using the new technology for the first time.

In the atolls, the Bank now has 100 Cash Agents offering customers the chance to withdraw up to MVR 2,000 per day. BML's call centre, internet banking service and ATMs will be available 24 hours per day. The Bank encourages customers to visit its website for details on locations and contact numbers.

Head of Customer Service, Moosa Nimal commented "We are pleased to announce our commitment to support Customers 24/7 this Ramazan. With our investments in Self-Service Banking, Customers need not worry about the limited banking hours during Ramazan and now can deposit, withdraw, transfer and make payments any day at any time."
