PRESS RELEASE

BML help students with special needs at Imaduddin School

At a reception in the Jewel Centre, Imaduddin School today, Bank of Maldives donated MVR 50,000 to the school for the betterment of the students with special needs, while a further MVR 70,000 worth of gifts was handed over to students by BML staff who had raised the money internally within the Bank.

Speaking at the ceremony, BML CEO and Managing Director Andrew Healy said “We are delighted to support the outstanding commitment of those involved here in Imaduddin School in the education and support of students with special needs. It is clear that the students are wonderfully treasured, nurtured and developed towards giving them the best possible future in life”.
