BANK OF MALDIVES SUCCESSFULLY CONCLUDES ABA CONFERENCE AND TAKES OVER VICE-CHAIRMANSHIP

The 35th Asian Bankers Association General Meeting and Conference, held from 15 – 16 November at Kurumba Maldives, has concluded successfully. Bank of Maldives was this year's host bank and the conference carried the theme "Banking in Asia – The Next Frontier". Renowned international speakers from the banking and financial services industry shared their insights into technological advancements which are revolutionizing banking as well as the evolving risks faced by the financial industry.

Outgoing Chairman of ABA, Daniel Wu, stated "This year's conference was a milestone event for ABA as it marked the first time we have gathered in the Maldives since our Association was founded in 1981. Bank of Maldives were wonderful hosts and I congratulate the Bank on being elected to take over the Vice Chairmanship of ABA for the next two years. In this regard, I also congratulate Hatton National Bank, Sri Lanka on being elected to the chairmanship.
