

BML STEPS UP SUPPORT FOR BUSINESS WITH THE OPENING OF BUSINESS CENTRE IN ADDU CITY

Bank of Maldives has today announced the opening of its first Business Centre in Addu City. This is a first in the series of dedicated Business Centres to open throughout the country as part of the Bank's investment to support small and medium businesses.

Dedicated Relationship Managers at the Business Centre will provide support for SMEs on a range of business banking requirements, from loan advisory services, identifying financial requirements and carrying out application processes conveniently. As part of the Bank's commitment to support the business community, similar Business Centres will be opened in Male', Hulhumale' and Kulhudhufushi in the near future.

Speaking at the ceremony held in Hithadhoo to open the Business Centre, In-Charge of the Bank, Aishath Noordeen commented "Addu is a key economic hub in the country and we are delighted to support the business community in this city with the opening of our first dedicated Business Centre. Our expert team here will provide the best suited financial solutions to business customers."

In addition to the Business Centre, the Currency Exchange Counter was also opened at the Gan International Airport today to cater for foreign exchange services for tourists. The counter will be in service according to the international flight schedule.

With a nationwide network of branches, relationship managers, self-service banking centres, ATMs, point of sale merchants and agents across all 20 atolls, complemented by a full suite of digital banking services, Bank of Maldives is committed to supporting individuals, businesses and communities across the Maldives.
