

BANK OF MALDIVES WINS EXCELLENCE IN TRAINING AND DEVELOPMENT AWARD

Bank of Maldives has received the coveted “Excellence in Training and Development Award: An Overall Award for Best Results Based Training” from the World HRD Congress at the 6th Global Training and Development Leadership Awards held in Mumbai.

At today’s official awards ceremony which was attended by more than 500 human resources professionals from across the Asia-Pacific region, BML was recognized for establishing a culture of learning and implementing policies to develop and retain talent. With monthly training sessions for staff across the nationwide network, a successful Kiyavama program to further education in relevant fields, and the recent launch of BML Riveli to offer staff and other interested parties to harness their banking skills, BML offers a competitive environment to progress personal and career development. Additionally, the Bank has successfully carried out the first year of the BML Graduate Internship Program for young graduates to gain valuable on the job experience.

BML’s People and Change Director, Sahar Waheed commented “It is with pride that we accept this Award which recognizes the Bank’s commitment to people excellence and our policies that promote and foster continuous learning. I would like to thank the Human Resources team and the managers across the Bank for their effort in building a highly capable, content and motivated workforce.”

Bank of Maldives is the largest bank and one of the largest employers in the Maldives, with the vast majority of its staff base being proud Maldivian locals. Having received the prestigious “Asia’s Best Employer Brand Award” for the second consecutive year, BML is recognized for its progressive human resource policies and practices.

For more information please contact:
Mohamed Saeed
Public Relations Department
Phone: 3015315