BANK OF MALDIVES EXPANDS NATIONWIDE PRESENCE WITH NEW BRANCH AND 24/7 SELF SERVICE BANKING IN GADHDHOO

Bank of Maldives has further expanded its presence in the country with the opening of a new branch and Self Service Banking Centre in Gaafu Dhaalu atoll Gadhdhoo.

BML aims to support the community of Gadhdhoo with the new facilities that will support local individuals and businesses to make deposits, payments and transfers on a 24/7 basis. The branch staff will be on hand during banking hours to assist with account opening, personal and business loans, credit cards and debit cards.

Speaking at the official inauguration ceremony held on the island today, In-Charge of the Bank, Aishath Noordeen commented, “We are delighted to support the people, businesses and local economy of the island with this new branch in Gadhdhoo. This forms a part of our ongoing investment program through which we continue to invest in supporting the local communities we serve.”

With a nationwide network of branches, relationship managers, self-service banking centres, ATMs, point of sale merchants and agents across all 20 atolls, complemented by a full suite of digital banking services, Bank of Maldives is committed to supporting individuals, businesses and communities across the Maldives.
